About CII Yi YUVA Chaupal

Young Indians involves students from schools and colleges around the country to involve them in leadership, personal development and nation building activities, Yi Students Net envisions connecting students to the community, the country at large and working towards a movement for “Nation Building”.

Young Indians (Yi) is an integral part of the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), a non government, not-for-profit, industry. Yi has around 1500 direct members in 32 chapters, and engages around 8300 students through student nets. Yi membership includes young progressive Indians between the age of 25 & 40 and comprises entrepreneurs, professionals and achievers from different walks of life. “To become the voice of Young Indians Globally” being the vision of Yi, it provides a platform for young Indians to participate and contribute. Yi’s work can be divided primarily into three groups; “Young Leadership” “Young Social Entrepreneurship” and “International Engagements”.

“Yi YUVA” is the new name for Yi Youth Affairs vertical. Young Indians involve students from schools and colleges by forming “Chaupals” across various institutes around the country. Yi Yuva IIS Chaupal aims to synergise students and their energy for positive action. It provides an opportunity to start thinking and work for India. As a part of this net, Students work in cross functional teams with a broad objective of enhancing their leadership skills and giving back to the nation. In the process, they get opportunity for self development, skill building, community service and nation building.

The Yi Chapter launched its first Yi Student NETwith the IIS University 19th September 2013. Mr. Rohit Verma, chair, Yi JAipur Chapter and Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice Chancellor, The IIS University, signed MOU for the same.

GUEST LECTURE ON “SOCIAL MEDIA MANAGEMENT”

12th Aug 2016

A Guest lecture was organized on 12th August 2016 on the topic “Social Media Management” in the AV Hall of The IIS University. Mr Shreyans Kasliwal, Chair-Yi Jaipur Chapter, Mr Sankal Temani, Executive, Yi Jaipur Chapter, Ms Pallavi Mishra and few other Yi members were present on the occasion. The speaker was Mr Dilnawaz Khan. He is an entrepreneur, evangelist & an engineer. Prior to the lecture on “Social Media Management”, Ms Pallavi Mishra, a Yi member, briefly introduced the project “MASOOM” to Yuva members. This project deals with creating awareness about child sexual abuse among students of Primary classes. MASOOM is a platform where children are made aware about the difference between good touch & bad touch. The purpose of the project is not to scare children but to make them aware regarding child sexual abuse.

Social networking is a crucial part of our lives today, but managing it all can be overwhelming. Mr Khan delivered his talk in a very simple and interesting manner. He said that social media is like the wrapper of a chocolate which envelops people all around and drives them. He also gave some very useful tips to students on how to manage their social media accounts.

AN INDUSTRIAL VISIT TO GUPTA FABTAX

26th Aug 2016

The first industrial visit of YUVA session 2016-17, was organized to the GUPTA FABTAX PRIVATE LTD in which around 150 members participated.

Gupta Fabtax private Ltd is a textile industry established in 1990 located in RIICO industrial area. It is associated with Bella Casa Fashion & Retail Limited. The core of the company is manufacturing & exporting of Bedspreads, Curtain Fabrics-woven, Cushions & Cover, Home Furnishing, Kitchen Linen, Patchwork, Patchwork Quilts, Quilts, Table Coverings/linen, and Table Runners. Mr Shreyans Kasliwal gave us the highlights about the industry & he then introduced the participants to the director of the company Mr Saurav Gupta. The company is the number one leading innovator, selling their products locally & online. The products are supplied to well-known retail markets like lifestyle, max, reliance etc. Moreover products are also supplied in Bihar & Bharatpur regions as well. On visit to each sector located in the industry students saw the process of manufacturing, printing & supplying of the products with the help of labourers which proved to be the live examples of how a factory works. The visit was very useful for the students of commerce and management.

Investing, Trading, Studying and Travelling to the United States

6th October, 2016

CII YI YUVA Chaupal gave our students an opportunity to attend a seminar on 'Investing, Trading, Studying and Travelling to the US', at the Royal Orchid in the month of October.

The honourable guests for the occasion were from CII Rajasthan and American Embassy who shared the advantage of investing, studying and trading abroad. They threw light in the joint vision statement of the partnership in which the US and India work together, not just for the benefit of the nations but for the benefit of both of the world.

Some of the benefits are as follows:

- Trade- both countries now aspire to increase bilateral trade to the tune of $5 billion.
- Investments- since India is growing faster in investments, it becomes a perfect destination for investment.
- Education- there will be more opportunities in exchange of skill and knowledge where students will get more exposure.
- Tourism- the exotic cultures of both the countries has a lot to offer.

The seminar provided a wider view of the Indian-US relationship which has all new policies where our youngsters can avail the best resources for building their future.

An Industrial visit to Jaipur Rugs

7th October, 2016

On 7th of October, the Chaupal made an industrial visit to India's top most carpet manufacturers and sellers, THE JAIPUR RUGS. The founder of the company is Mr. Nand Kishore Choudhary who is a social entrepreneur. It is a family business in which 3 generations work in one tune at different locations including HO at India and outlets in US.

Moreover students learn the tactics of business and the attributes of social entrepreneurship, since the organization teaches the value of 'LINKING THE GRASSROOTS WITH THE LUXURIES'. The industries follow supply chain management which adds on to its success.

Students explored new ways and methods of running a business and also the qualities of leadership.

Thought leadership debate competition

8th December 2016

A new initiative by CII-YI YUVA Chaupal to generalize the scheme of Demonetization among young Indians was taken on 8th of December 2016 at GIT, Jaipur. It was a Thought Leadership Debate Competition with the topic “Demonetization is s game changer in the Indian economy”. There were four more colleges took part in the CII-YUVA chapter. The guests of honour for the same were Mr. Shreyans Kasliwal who welcomed the gathering with an enthusiastic note, Mr. Ashish Maheshwari, chair YUVA introduced us to YI and Mr. Arjun Chowgule, chair YUVA debate, gave us the guidelines of the competition. Among the four colleges JK Lakshmipat University bagged the first position and certificates of appreciation were awarded to the other participants. This was followed by a discussion on demonetization by the experts and in the end Mr. Vivek Lodha, co-chair YUVA delivered the vote of thanks.

The activity ultimately enlightened the students and helped them to understand better the implications of the scheme.

Nukkad Natak

A NUKKAD NATAK was conducted in collaboration with a team of CI YII and Dr. Piyush Mathur who is Nephrologists to celebrate Yi Gift an Organ day on the 20th of January 2017 in conjunction with the National Volunteering Week 2017. Gift an Organ has always been an initiative to increase awareness on organ donation and we are educating people and removing the myths related to this noble gesture. “Nukkad Natak has been an integral part and the idea is to propagate social and political messages in a humorous and sarcastic way and create awareness among the masses.

They spread awareness among the people present there about organ donation which is basically removal of a valuable organ from a donor and transplanting it to a recipient. According to Mr. Piyush Mathur, he will be to encourage the general population to learn from positive people on how to bring more meaning into their own lives despite all the challenges.

The play attracted a lot of interest from the hospital from the elderly, to the youth. The enthusiasm from the audience demonstrated the growing need and demand which bring people together. Audiences appreciated and applauded the efforts put in by the students. They also thanked The IIS University for organising such an awareness programme

25th January

A NUKKAD NATAK was conducted on the 25th of January 2017 at Jaipur City Transport Services Ltd, Sanganer Depot about “HORN NOT OK PLEASE” (HNOP). The students of IIS University took the opportunity to alert bus drivers and conductors about not to blow horn unnecessarily. It is one of the main reasons behind losing tranquillity in Jaipur city.

The play attracted bus conductors and drivers to make them understand not to blow horn without a cause which affect both health and behaviour. They also depicts about the problems like hypertension, hearing loss, sleep disturbances and other harmful effects. Students also mention about the ambulance which should go at first rather than other vehicles.

In the end they all appreciated and applauded the efforts put in by the students. They also thanked The IIS University for organising such an awareness programme.

Peace with YUVA

There is no path to peace, peace is the only path.

-Mahatma Gandhi

In today's age everyone is in search of mental peace due to the rush in life. But most of us fail to understand that the peace of mind lies within us, and to gain it we need to peep deep inside ourselves and introspect. Healthy being is one whose mental as well as physical state is at peace and 'what exercise is to body, meditation is to mind'.

To introduce this to YUVA students of The IIS University, a workshop was organized on 30th of January at 11:00 am in New Hall. It was the first time a pan India meditation workshop observing the peace and non - violence day. Moreover, mindfulness training for students gives them tools to help them remain calm, sustain attention, and able to focus. It reduces stress and anxiety and boots levels of attention and concentration. Chief Guest for the workshop was Mr. Narpat Singh who enlightened the members of 'CII YI' with his words of wisdom and an experimental session was conducted by Sr. Shimla which was followed by a twenty minute meditative session. Overall it was an enthralling and learning experience.

GUEST LECTURE ON “POWER DRESSING”

20th March, 2017

Guest lecture was organized on March 20, keeping in view the holistic growth and development of students and to make them competent enough to accept the challenges of the corporate world. The speaker was ‘MRS. SHIPRA BHUTANI’, the director and founder of the company, ‘OUANTUM’. She was born in Mumbai and since eight years she’s a women entrepreneur. The lecture, she gave served as a repository of knowledge and thrust upon ‘Power Dressing’ and ‘Interview Skills’. She initiated the lecture by emphasising that, for each job role and for each profession, dressing is important, which she abbreviated as, “Dress for the job you want”.

Furthermore, she made the lecture interesting by making the students answer some of her questions. Through her questions, she explained the importance of dressing and how dressing gives the first impression. She explained about Professional Attire, Business Etiquette, and ways to groom one’s appearance. She also discussed about body language and soft skills. She says that, “Face is the index of the mind and it clearly displays the person’s interest”.

Furthermore, she made the lecture more knowledgeable and enjoyable by giving a live demo on how to shake hands at workplace. She ended her lecture by saying that, “Women have to break the shackles of conservatism and do what is appropriate and not what is expected”. Her lecture was thoroughly an absorbing one that was well appreciated by all the students and it also helped the students enhance their employability skills.

Annual session of young Indians (Jaipur chapter) & session on “Role of youth in creating a developed society”

4th march '17: Hotel Clark's Amer, Jaipur

It began with welcome remarks by Ashish Maheshwari and Nitin gupta about Yi (young Indian). They talked about Young Indians (Yi) is an integral part of the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), a non-government, not-for-profit, industry led and industry managed organisation playing a proactive role in India's development process. Yi was formed in the year 2002 with an objective of creating a platform for young Indians to realize the dream of a developed nation. Yi has around 2350 direct members in 41 chapters, and engages around 11000 students through Chaupals, under the brand 'Yuva'. The Yi membership includes young progressive Indians between the age group of 21 & 40 and comprises entrepreneurs, professionals and achievers from different walks of life. Yi's work is divided primarily into three groups; "Youth Leadership", "Nation Building" and "Thought Leadership". With Thirteen years of glorious past and decades ahead that promise nothing short, Yi intends to become a larger movement of young people and promote the attitude of "We Can, We Will".

Then, talked about events that took place in the entire session that is Coffee with CEO, Night Marathon, Debate series under thought Leadership, India 20-20, Delegation to Singapore, Yi Box Cricket League, Sports League and mainly focused on Project MASOOM. Also project social management, conflict management, HNOP, Organ donation and Swach Bharat was focused more this year.

Afterwards, Raghu Kailas, National Chairmen of Yi and Basantt Khaitan, Vice Chairman of CII Rajasthan State Council address about engaging youth and innovation & integrating industries with society respectively. They acquaintance about the nation's building is highly dependent on youth and they are the powerful resource, which can either construct or destructed the whole nation. Youth should step forward to take up on the responsibility in developing the nation. The power of youth must be harnessed properly to set the society on the path of change. Moreover, the primary goal is to develop Indian industry and to ensure that government and society as a whole, understand both the needs of industry and its contribution to the nation's well being. And finally, release of Yi Jaipur Chapter Annual Report 2016-17.

After that, acceptance speech was given by Incoming Chapter Chair, Mr Vivek Lodha and Incoming Chapter Co Chair, Mr. Shreyansh.

The Inaugural Session of the programme was addressed by eminent speakers including Mr. Ratnesh P Kashyap, Past Chairman CII Rajasthan & Managing Direction—SRSL International Pvt Ltd; Mr Sandesh Nayak, Chief Executive Officer—Jaipur Smart City Limited Government of Rajasthan; Mr Raghu Kailas, National Chairman—Yi & Managing Director of Unimo Exports Pvt Ltd; Dr D N Pandey, Addl Principal Chief Conservator of Forest Government of Rajasthan; Dr Ashok Lahoti, Hon'ble Mayor—Jaipur City Government of Rajasthan. They all one by one talked about “Role of Youth in creating a Developed Society”. Firstly, Mr Sandesh Nayak discussed about Smart city and innovation in urban area. A smart city is an urban development vision to integrate multiple information and communication of technology (COT) and Internet of things (IOT) solutions in a secure fashion to manage a city's assets. It engages effectively with local people in local governance and decision by use of open innovation processes and e-participation. He also concluded that great nation is when people of nation plant a tree and find solution & vibrant one. Secondly, Mr. Raghu Kailas discussed about Yi born and existence and divided into governance & civil society. Thirdly, Dr D N Pandey talked about business ethics and gave basic fundamental like chase your dream without killing other's dream, loneliness bring innovative ideas and chase you dreams but also nurture someone else dream. He concluded that ethics towards society is essentials in business and the concept of business ethics arose in the 1960s as companies became more aware of a rising consumer-based society that showed concerns regarding the environment, social causes and corporate responsibility. Fourthly, Dr Ashok Lahoti talked about Jaipur city and benefits & development of it. He finished with the saying that he would work to fulfil the dreams of making Jaipur a world class city.

In the end, Panel discussion took place on the topic of “Youth Engagement in Entertainment/ Media & Lifestyle. The session moderator were Mr Abhishek Mishra, Past Chairman— Yi Jaipur Chapter & Director JVS Foods Pvt Ltd; Mr Amogh Dusad, Sr Vice President & Head— Strategy Sony Entertainment Television; Ms Sudepta Saha, RJ Radio City 91.1; Mr Rohit Dangayach, Co Founder & CEO Wholesale box Internet Pvt. Ltd. Firstly Mr Amogh Dusad talked about Youth engagement is essentially making the youth part and parcel of the fabric of the community in a meaningful way. It is to have them not only be included in programs, but to be leading as well. It is to build up their confidence, self-esteem, and self-motivation. It means to treat them as young adults who are capable of making moral, intellectual, and even spiritual decisions. Secondly, Ms Sudepta Saha discussed about how AM change over PM and also history of radio technology. Lastly, Mr Rohit Dangayach who is an entrepreneur talked about his achievements and success story.

A highlight of the event was that IIS Yuva chaupal was awarded a special recognition award on the occasion for its year round activities for the session 2016-17. Overall the entire annual session meeting was enjoyable, motivating, and inspirational and a learning experience for all of us.
