Every year, COSMOS - the annual Cultural Fest at the University - aims to bring young minds together to celebrate a world of possibilities. This year, from 7-10 January 2019, the campus was abuzz with a string of intra and inter-institutional events, providing the students a stage to discover and embrace their talents. In keeping with the theme this year, "Suis tes Rêves: Follow your Dreams", the Fest was a four-day affair brimming with youthful zest and zeal and offered a plethora of events to suit every talent group.

MEMORIAL ORATION & PUBLIC LECTURE

On 12 January 2019, the Prof. L.S. Ramaswami Memorial Oration cum Public Lecture was organised by the Department of Zoology, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur, at its Academic Staff College, on "Application of Biotechnology in Human Health". The speaker was Padma Bhushan Dr. Manju Sharma. The lecture was attended by over thirty students of the University's Dept. of Biotech. (drawn from the B.Sc. and the M.Sc. programmes), along with two faculty members.

COMPETING AT JK LAKSHMIPAT UNIVERSITY

The students of Theatre Studies (COSD programme) participated in an inter-college/university competition - Sabrang - organized by JK Lakshmipat University, Jaipur, with their play entitled Sadgati (written by Munshi Premchand) about discrimination toward the 'dalits' in our society. Almost thirty students were part of the play, including the backstage and the technical crew.

PERFORMANCES AT JAIRANGAM

The students of the University's Theatrical Society performed two street plays entitled Hahaha No! and Sashakt at Jaipur's famed theatre festival - Jairangam - at Jawahar Kala Kendra. The plays were highly appreciated by the audience. While the former depicted the importance of positivity and that there is no definition of perfect laughter, the latter was about self empowerment, showing the struggles that are faced by women in the present era, thereby advising them to embolden their spirits and face their troubles head-on without expecting any external aid or sustenance.
