Self exploration leads to self improvement. Keeping in mind the differing perspectives of today's world and an overall development of the students, the College introduces various activities based on the essentials of personality development and individual excellence. The various extra-curricular activities provide opportunities to the students to bring forth foster and enhance their varied abilities. It is the interface between the students and the administration and the two work together to identify and address concerns that affect the students directly and indirectly. It represents the interests of the students and participates in discussions and decisions that affect the entire student body.

From acting as the students' voice and ensuring that each student gets the best out of their university experience, the Council works with a focus on an all round development of students. It organises several co-curricular events through the year, in association with the various activity clubs/ guilds on campus. The Council also organises most major events of the University like the Freshers' day, Thank You get together, the Annual day and the much awaited annual cultural fest - Cosmos. It is also actively involved in coordinating the participation of students in Inter University competitions and fests.

An extremely important domain of The Council is its role in streamlining the student volunteer effort for the Institute events that are organized periodically. It also looks after the designing and distribution of the University t-shirt and sweatshirt. ## ANNUAL PLAY -“SALEEB”

The theatrical society of The IIS University organised a one month theatre workshop from 4th August to 3rd September and staged the Annual play on 4th September 2015 at the IIS Auditorium, which was a result of the same. The workshop was organised by 5 SENSES, a Mumbai based theatre group. The play was directed by Mr. Oasis and Mr. Dhirendra.

The play was an irony on the human society as a whole. The plot of the play depicted the difference between humans and scarecrows and showed how humans are turning into scarecrows by losing their humanity and destroying others for their own benefit. It also presented the suppression of lower class by the more powerful and elite people of the society.

The most important and interesting aspect of the play was, that the whole script was self written.

The performance began in a narrative style and told the story of two villages, one with higher class powerful people and the other the lower class people who made scarecrows. There was effective use of lights and sound which helped in building atmosphere and most importantly enhanced the play. The highlights of the play was crocodile dance and most importantly the climax scene of the play "THE COURT SCENE" which was the heart of the play which showed the dying humanity and presented how humans cunningly can make innocents into villains.

The play ended by RORY(the protagonist scarecrow) giving the answer of how he came to life and telling the meaning of true love by giving up his own life for other. The show was witnessed by more than 400 people including students, teachers, parents and various theatre artists and had a large media coverage.

The chief guest Justice Bhandari appreciated the efforts of the students and theme of the play.

One-week Student Interaction Programme (29 July-4 August '15)

Report

The inception of the student-interaction programme took place when a group of nine undergraduate students from PSU arrived at The IIS University, as part of the partnership between the two universities for academic interchange of ideas. The welcome included with the traditional tika-moli, after which the American students were greeted by the sixteen members of the Core Student Group the hosting university. This was followed by an interface with a few faculty members and the management. The Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Ashok Gupta, addressed the gathering by formally welcoming the visiting students. The students were also accorded a floral welcome by Rector and Registrar, Dr. Raakhi Gupta. The group escort with the American students, Ms. Sakshi Bhargava, a Doctoral student at Penn. State, thanked The IIS University for hosting them.

The next couple of days saw both student-groups participating in a host of interactive activities, which included tie and dye, pottery and sculpture, jewellery-making, mehendi-applying, classical Indian dance-class, yoga and adventure activities such as rappelling. In addition, both the Indian and American students collaborated and made audio-visual presentations on a varied number of topics of mutual concern. The presentations were highly interactive and informative and the topics ranged from Religion and Spirituality, Rajasthani Music, Natural Resources to Women in Cinema and their Objectification in the Media. In another session on Research and Career Prospects in the US, the group escort – Ms. Bhargava - addressed the Indian students on how to select and apply to American universities and the prerequisites for the same.

The American students also experienced home visits, which gave them an opportunity to meet the Indian host family and get to know the culture and lifestyle over dinner. They were also taken out for shopping and local sightseeing. On the final day of the interaction, a cultural performance entitled 'East Meets West' was put up by both the groups to bid farewell to the American students, some of whom also shared their experiences. The programme co-ordinator, Dr. Rimika Singhvi, presented mementoes to the PSU group and also extended an informal vote of thanks. Thereafter, the group departed back for Delhi.

Reports of the activities organized by Readers' Club

Activity

Activity - Books versus E-books

The Department of English organized a Readers' Club activity for an open interdisciplinary session on Books versus E-Books on 26 September 2015. Faculty member Ms. Sucharita Sharma supervised the healthy discussion on what the current generation prefers – a flick of a page or the click of a button. As a conclusion, everyone agreed that although e-books are convenient and easily accessible but psychological satisfaction and aesthetic pleasure can only be derived by reading books. Moreover, it was highlighted that the sense of ownership and nostalgia seeps in on seeing their collection of books which can never be replaced by thousands downloaded on Kindle. However, there's no denying the fact that both books and e-books are equally important and the current generation is lucky to have dual access.

Activity - Visit to Rajasthan Film Festival

The Department of English planned a visit to the Rajasthan Film Festival on 20 January 2016. More than 18 nations participated in the festival this year. The II and IV semester postgraduate students of English Literature attended the premiere of the movie 'Rough Book' at Cinemapolis, World Trade Park, Jaipur, accompanied by Dr. Rani Rathore, HOD and Dr. Anita HadaSangwan.

Activity - Visit to Jaipur Literature Festival

The Department of English organized a one day visit for the students of the Honours and Postgraduate courses of the Department to the third day of the ZEE Jaipur Literature Festival 2016, i.e., 22 January 2016. 50 students were escorted by three teachers to the venue Diggi Palace. Through this departmental activity,

Art is a vehicle for the expression of emotions and ideas, a means for exploring and appreciating elements for their own sake and representation. Art is a child of freedom. Paint to explore life in you and the world around. Let the artist in you live and grow within the shades of colors, that denote life in its totality.

Shatakshi Agarwal
President, Visual Arts

My definition of art is creating something with my hands that is an expression of who I am?
Art is a part of me. I can't escape the urge to create my feelings in the way of paper and colors. It is my personal therapy. And in the process I leave a mark in the works I create. I am an artist. And there is nothing else, I would be. Paint the world with colorful words, dream and let the colors paint your imagination.

Certificate and Diploma course in Yoga

Yoga is a healing system of theory and practice. The purpose of yoga is to create strength, awareness and harmony in both mind and body. The relaxation techniques incorporated in yoga can lessen chronic pain, such as lower back pain, arthritis, headaches and carpal tunnel syndrome. Yoga can also lower blood pressure and reduce insomnia. It increases flexibility, muscle strength and tone, respiration, energy and vitality and weight reduction with improved athletic performance. Stress can reveal itself in many ways, including back or neck pain, sleeping problems, headaches, drug abuse and an inability to concentrate. Hence, aside from the array of physical benefits, one of the best benefits of yoga is that it manages stress. For such well-being promotion, the university also offers Yoga courses for students and faculty members every year. The Certificate and Diploma course in Yoga is running in the University campus at present.
