The department of psychology, IIS (deemed to be University) Jaipur, organised a webinar Psychology Students and Youth Career guidance and Mentorship Platform (PSY-CAMP) by Wings within on 31st August 2021 as a part of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav.

The speaker of the webinar was Jalam Singh who was the programme coordinator. He started off the programme by explaining what PSY-CAMP is and gave a broader explanation of how it works to generate some understanding about it in the students.

He further explained that Wings within provide three services which are Mental health services, Skill development services and Career guide and Mentorship program. He also clarified students' doubts regarding the internships the organization provides.

Then he further explained how they provide the services and also mentioned the colleges and universities they've a MoU with and the awards they've received.

He also talked about their other successful programs they've done which were Students Career Guidance and Mentorship (STU- CAMP), Women and Youth Employment and Mentorship (Aatmanirbhar), Employment Assistance Program (EAP), Family Community and Mental Health program (Wellbeing club) and Career Guidance and profiling (Career Compass).

In the end, Dr. Padam Kanwar, the managing director and chief psychologist of Wings within also interacted with the students and helped them with their curiosities and questions they had related to the field of psychology.

It was a very enlightening session by Wings within wherein they introduced students with such a great internship opportunity where they'll get more practical knowledge about the fields of psychology they're interested in.
