

La Fiesta 2016 (Freshers' Day)

On 13th August 2016, a lively stimulating programme 'La Fiesta' was organized by the senior students of The IIS University, conscientiously, that marked the felicitation cum mingling and bonding session with the fresh petals that stepped into the University. The occasion witnessed some scintillating dance performances, of both classical and contemporary styles, in the friendly contest they took part in. Ms. Freshers titles were conferred on Ms. Shreelekha Singh(UG) and Ms. Kirti Bhargava (PG), adjudged collectively by Ms. Pooja Taneja, Fashion Entrepreneur & Pranik Healer, Dr. Roopa Mathur, Prof and Dean, Academics, IISU and Ms. Saumya Mathur, Alumna & Senior Consultant, People & Human Capital Strategy, Deloitte.

Getting Accustomed

The Orientation day organized on 8th August 2016 marked the beginning of the academic session 2016 - 17 of the PhD and M.Phil students at The IIS University. The Purpose of the Event was to spread awareness among the students with the curriculum, CAs and the marking schemes in a positive light, so that the budding scholars feel enthusiastic about the year ahead.

Theatre Arena

The modus operandi in the shaping of the Street Plays formed the subject matter of the 10 day workshop at The IIS University from 1st - 10th August 2016. The veteran freelance theatre practitioner, Mrs. Babita Madan expounded on the various aspects of the craft- beginning from brainstorming sessions, rigorous research, call song to the enactment of the Natak, and shared these with a group of 35 participants at the Srijan Hall. The final show was put up on 11th August 2016 at the lawns of The IIS University.

Raksha Bandhan with UMANG

Every year on Shraavan Pournima, the day of full moon during the monsoon season falls the secular festival of Rakhi where the 'bond of protection' in the form of a brother's vow towards his sister, is observed. The sister, in turn, wishes the well-being of her brother. A group of 33 MBA students of The IIS University visited 'Umang' and exchanged the warmth of the festivity by the symbolic tying of the silken thread on children's wrists. The gesture brought a smile on the faces of the young ones with the generation and reciprocation of positive energies on either side.

Anti-Ragging Strive

A poster-making competition was organized by The Anti-Ragging Squad of The IIS University in the Department of Visual Arts on 8th August 2016, titled "Ragging is a crime". The competition involved a participation of 110 students from various departments of the University. Adjudged by experts, Mr. Shwet Goel and Dr. Giriraj Sharma, Sr. Asst.

Professors, Department of Visual Arts, The IIS University, Jaipur, the following were jointly declared the first prize winners - Ms Anupama Agarwal, Ms. Ambika Ranawat, Ms. Modhumita Bhattacharya and Ms. Neha Singh.

NSS ACTIVITIES

NSS Orientation

The NSS orientation programme was held on 14 July 2016 to introduce the students of The IIS University to the functioning, atmosphere and the ambiance of the university. The group leaders connected with NSS, with the aim to understand the community and developing social and civic responsibility through activities like institutional work, community projects, national programmes, medical camps. Dr. Sharad Rathore drew students' attentive enthusiasm towards community service. Her words made students aware of the true meaning of "NOT ME BUT YOU". The session ended with a new spark in the eyes of the new NSS volunteers.

Tree Plantation

The NSS Units of The IIS University organized a tree plantation drive in collaboration with Department of Forest, Government of Rajasthan, Team Hope and Wildlife Trust of India on 25 July 2016. The volunteers planted 200 saplings of different types like Neem, Gulmohar, Karanj, Jamun and Peepal, in the Raiser Range, Nahargarh Forest Wildlife Sanctuary to conserve and save the depleting tree population in Jaipur. A group of 148 NSS volunteers took an earnest oath to plant trees and take care of the environment. The activity truly reflected the spirit of NSS and their commitment towards society.

The second phase of plantation was carried out on 2nd August in the neighbourhood behind Thadi Market next to International School for Informatics and Management (ISIM), Mahavir Marg Jaipur. The programme was inaugurated by Mr. Mukesh Lakhiani, Ward Member, Ward 41, Mrs. Kamlesh Meena, Chairperson of Garden Committee of Jaipur and Dr. Raakhi Gupta, Registrar, The IIS University. At the outset the students of the Sem I took an oath to conserve the environment and keep it green.

Rakhi Making Competition

NSS Units of The IIS University organized Rakhi making Competition for NSS Volunteers on 8th and 9th August 2016. A total of about 200 hand-made Rakhis was exhibited for sale on 17 August 2016 in campus. An amount of Rs.1194/- was collected which would be used for benefit of students in Government School. The rakhis were judged on the parameters of creativity and presentation by the esteemed members of The IIS University Dr. Suveen Agarwal, Former HOD, Department of Mathematics, Dr. Radha Kashyap, HOD Fashion Studies and Dr. Nalini Totuka, Assistant Prof., Department of Home Science and Roshni Purohit BVA III was awarded the 1st prize.

PATRIOTIC FERVOUR

The IIS Institutional Network celebrated the 70th National Independence Day, immersed in gay patriotism. Beginning with unfurling of the Tricolour, the young school children put up a string of rousing performances seeped in patriotic fervour at the IIS Auditorium. This was followed by The IIS University students presenting a skit, a short theatrical episode, satirizing on the theme 'Horn not, Ok Please?'. The performance was acknowledged by the Vice Chancellor, Dr. Ashok Gupta, as timely, in his concluding address with a penetrating remark on the youth of today being more concerned for their rights rather than for their responsibilities. His underlying message was that the focus should thus shift in this desired direction.
