NSS CAMP 2018

The NSS department of the IIS University organized a special NSS camp from 13-19 Dec, 2017 to provide unique opportunities for the students for team work, collective experience sharing and constant interaction with community. The chief guest for the occasion Shri Ajit Singh, Former DGP of Rajasthan Police, ardently inspired the young girls to remain cautious of the world around and informed them on how to deal with various tricky situations. The camp was brimming with enlivening activities like Yoga under the supervision of Ms. Janaki Pareek , Self-Defense training with Mr. Dhananjay Tyagi of the Indian Martial Arts Sansthan, preparation and presentation of the nukkads under the tutorship of Mr. Mohammed Ali and stimulating seminars with various esteemed speakers like Dr. Jitendra Singh discussing healthy eating habits, Gender Sensitization by Ms. Chanda Asani, an encouraging view on combating violence against women by the founder of the NGO, Dignity of the Girl Child, Dr. Meeta Singh and many more. The campers were then taken on outdoor visits to Galta Gate where they had an informative session on the skills of weaving and block painting at the Kustha Aashram. The camp ended with a confidence building lecture by Mr. Valen Imaya on how to groom oneself and the importance of learning different languages. It turned out to be a very enlightening experience as it inspired the students to move out of their comfort zones and explore new horizons and develop an individualistic perspective.
